

Milliken Creek Inn & Spa Officially Recommended by Prestigious MICHELIN Guide

Milliken Creek Inn & Spa, a boutique luxury hotel in the very heart of Napa, announced that it is officially “Recommended” by the MICHELIN Guide San Francisco, Bay Area and Wine Country 2012.

This honor places Milliken Creek Inn & Spa among an elite group of hotels and restaurants anonymously selected, reviewed and rated by Michelin’s local team of inspectors.

The recommendation says, in part, “It’s not just the country charm of the rooms that takes your breath away - the grounds are breathtaking.” Noting Milliken’s ambience as an “antidote to the hustle and bustle” of modern life, this impressive endorsement reasserts Milliken’s mission to deliver an “authentic” Napa experience – based on sincere hospitality in a historic setting with a strong focus on local and boutique wineries, restaurants and people.

“We are extremely honored to be recognized by the Michelin Guide for our work,” said Connie Gore, general manager of Milliken Creek Inn & Spa. “MICHELIN’s formal recommendation validates our commitment to extraordinary service and we are proud to be among such an elite group of hospitality professionals.”

Milliken is home to 12 individually designed, spacious suites where thoughtful touches such as plush, king-size beds with the finest linens, oversized hydrotherapy bathtubs, flickering fireplaces and charming views off private balconies set the stage for a sumptuous retreat. Daily delivery of gourmet breakfast, evening Magic Hours with local vintners pouring select reserves, complimentary late-night cordials and a serene, riverside setting ensure all guests feel pampered and peaceful.

Should guests want to venture off Milliken’s lush grounds, the hotel’s superlative staff will recommend visits to the area’s renowned wineries, a tour of the famed Silverado Trail, world-famous restaurants and shops, and much more. For the more daring, adventures such as bike tours, hot air ballooning and hiking are within easy reach.

For years, sophisticated travelers in search of romance, genuine hospitality and exquisite service have quietly escaped to the intimate and indulgent suites at Milliken Creek Inn & Spa. Like most of the Napa Valley wines that improve with age, Milliken is a cherished retreat that continuously offers enhanced levels of serenity and relaxation to its guests. Now is the time to experience the hotel that redefines luxury, intimacy, charm and the authentic Napa experience.
