Gay-Friendly Honeymoon Destinations

These idyllic destinations (from Napa to the Caribbean) all have two things in common -- they're gay-friendly and make for the perfect newlywed retreat. By Brooke Showell

Napa Valley, California

Why It's Hot: With around 400 wineries, picturesque Napa is the closest you can get to Tuscany sans passport. Whether you're wine connoisseurs or vino virgins, you'll enjoy meandering through the breathtaking vineyards, funky farmhouses and charming wine cellars, while sipping full-bodied cabernets, on a wine tour. For a break from the pinot, indulge in some pampering in Calistoga, known for its mud baths and volcanic hot springs. For dinner, share a romantic meal in your cozy fireside booth at Brannan's Grill.

Where to Stay: Relax in a lavish king-size bed at Milliken Creek Inn & Spa, a luxe 12-room boutique property surrounded by vineyards. After stopping by the hotel's Magic Hour to sample local wines and cheeses, head up to your room for a soak in your oversize hydrotherapy tub (from $350, MillikenCreekInn.com).

Find everything you need to know to plan your Napa Valley honeymoon.
